Dear Mr. Sanou,

I write you as a president of the international conference „Better Cities for Better Life“ and on the behalf of its Organizational Committee. The conference will take place on 28th and 29th November 2013 in Prague. The key theme of this conference is to create the shortest connection between needs of large cities and the opportunities for creative providers of intelligent tools for the reduction noise and air pollution, including a scientific base of immense technological value. All aspects of these topics will be discussed in several conference sections oriented to business, academic and scientific cooperation. More detailed information about this event, participations and its program is published at www.better-cities.eu.

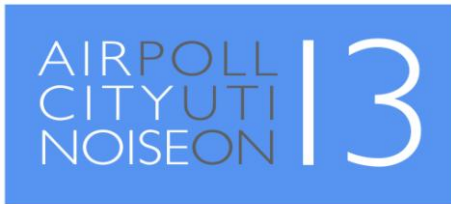

The Czech Technical University – Faculty of Electrical Engineering who is a Academy Member of all sectors of the International Telecommunication Union (ITU) is one of the members of the Organization Committee of the conference. Therefore we are in depth informed about the significant strategy objectives and outputs of the Development Sector of the ITU and the important role of the Development Bureau on mentioned issues. Their presentation would be interesting and important contribution to the expected discussions and reaching objectives of the conference and for the bearing of future steps and actions.

We would greatly appreciate participation of the expert (or experts) of the Development Bureau of the ITU at our conference.

We believe that it will be possible to realize our intention.
